

Invitation LYP Sports Day & Dinner

Running unites us and brings us together because, in the words of the great Bill Rodgers, "We sweat the same. We struggle the same." Running is a simple, primitive act, and therein lays its power. For it is one of the few commonalities left between us as a human race. Toeing the starting line of a marathon, regardless of the language you speak, the God you worship or the color of your skin, we all stand as equal. Perhaps the world would be a better place if more people ran

Every year, the League of Young Professionals family converges together for the annual sports day. The main aim of an annual sports day is to raise funds for the LYP foundation that supports the bright but needy student's through high School.
